Each therapy builds upon the last, moving beyond symptomatic relief to meet the root of what your body and spirit are calling for, creating a complete journey of deep nourishment and lasting transformation.
- A warm, artisan meal prepared with intention from our kitchen, nourishing you from the inside out
- Full access to our mountain lodge and trails, where the land itself becomes your healer

CREATING A SACRED SPACE

A SANCTUARY OF WHOLENESS

At SoHum, we cultivate a sacred space where every guest can embark on a journey of profound healing. Drawing inspiration from diverse spiritual traditions, we honor the universal language of the Divine. While Ayurveda's roots lie in the ancient Vedic wisdom of India, which is reflected in our artwork, decor, and traditions, our embrace extends to all faiths and beliefs.

ATTIRE FOR COMFORT & EXPLORATION

We encourage attire that fosters comfort and ease. As the mountain weather can be unpredictable, layering is key. For your outdoor adventures, we recommend long pants and socks to protect against ticks and other woodland creatures. Hiking shoes are ideal, and hiking sticks are available for your use.

NOURISHING WITH DELIGHT

At SoHum, we believe that food is medicine, a profound expression of love and nourishment. Each guest will be honored with a curated multi-course plant based meal, thoughtfully crafted according to the timeless principles of Ayurveda. Ghee is the only dairy product offered on property. Please notify our staff of any dietary restrictions or allergies that we should be aware of.

A SANCTUARY OF PEACE

To nurture an environment of tranquility for all, we kindly request that the use of electronics, particularly phone calls, be limited in public spaces.

IN HEALING AND EVOLUTION

Our entire community of Asheville is healing and on a path of evolution after Hurricane Helene. The land of Elk Mountain is no exception. While the destruction has offered beautiful opportunities, including breathtaking views and the creation of space for herb gardens and farms, our land is still healing. There may be sections of the property that we will close periodically for maintenance and regeneration. We also invite you to participate in the healing with guided walks and meditations on this sacred land.

CARRY THE SPIRIT OF SOHUM BEYOND

Our hope is that the spirit of SoHum will continue to nourish you long after you depart. To support your journey of deep connection to the Divine, we invite you to explore our boutique. Here, you'll find a curated selection of thoughtfully sourced items, many crafted by local artisans, designed to elevate your well-being.
